Preface.

THE first Visitation of Hertfordshire and Middlesex was made in 1572 by COOKE, and the second in 1634 by Sir RICHARD ST. GEORGE. The original MSS. of these are G 17 and C 28 at the College of Arms.

This Volume contains so much of these two Visitations as relates to Hertfordshire.

Copies of the Hertfordshire portion of the first Visitation are to be found in Harl. MSS. 1433, 1504, 1546, and 6147; and of the second in Harl. MSS. 1504 and 1547. These MSS. contain many additions to the Visitation Pedigrees, which are not repeated in these pages. Harl. MS. 6147 also contains the additional Hertfordshire Pedigrees which are given in Appendix I.; a copy of this MS. is in the Library of Queen's College, Oxford, and has been erroneously called a Visitation of Hertfordshire in 1615 by CAMDEN.

Appendix II. contains Hertfordshire Pedigrees added to Harl. MS. 1546 by R. MUNDY.

A few explanatory notes are given in brackets.

The third and last Visitation of Hertfordshire is that of 1669 by BYSSHE, D 28 at the College of Arms, of which no copy is known to exist elsewhere.

The

OF THE
County of Worcester

MADE IN THE YEAR

1569

WITH OTHER PEDIGREES RELATING TO THAT COUNTY
FROM RICHARD MUNDY'S COLLECTION.

EDITED BY

W. P. W. PHILLIMORE, M.A., B.C.L.,

QUEEN'S COLLEGE, OXFORD.

LONDON :

1888.

Preface.

THE County of Worcester appears to have been visited by the officers of the College of Arms on four several occasions, viz., in 1530 by BENOLTE, in 1569 by COOKE, in 1634 by ST. GEORGE and BOROUGH, and finally in 1682-3 by ST. GEORGE or his deputies.

The only one of these Visitations which has yet appeared in print is the last, which was edited by Mr. W. C. METCALFE, and published in 1883.

As will be seen below, according to Add. MS. 19816, this county is said to have been "visited" in 1574 by RICHARD LEE, Portcullis, though this is scarcely probable, since the second Visitation took place only five years before that date.

No copies of the Visitations of 1530 and 1634 appear to exist outside the College of Arms. It is needful to mention this, as for a long time it was announced that the Visitations of 1569 and 1634 were among the prospective issues of the Society. As is well known, the records of the College of Arms are not available for publication, and this intention had consequently to be abandoned, for inquiry shewed that no copy of the latter is known to exist outside the College of Arms, although the statement is made by Sims in his well-known Manual, that the British Museum possesses such a transcript in the Additional MS. No. 19816. It is true that that volume is labelled "Visitation of Worcestershire 1634 and Arms 1574," but that has been done by the binder in evident error. The first portion is occupied with the "Visitation" of Norfolk in 1563, and a miscellaneous collection of pedigrees by Sir WILLIAM DETHICK. Folio 100 commences a collection, also separately folioed, of Worcestershire pedigrees, the first of which is the genealogy of Wheeler, the head of that family being Gilbert Wheeler, described as "of Droitwich 1634." The collection of pedigrees terminates with tricks of the arms of "Cratford 1634" on fo. 33, those of "Evet 1634," and a pedigree of Baker of Northfield, dated 20 June 1640, and attested by WILLIAM RYLEY, Lancaster; and finally, on fo. 37, with a pedigree of Vernon, with the date of 1634. None of the intervening genealogies bear any internal evidence that they are taken from that Visitation, as those of Wheeler and Vernon evidently are, and the manuscript is nothing more than a miscellaneous collection of Worcestershire pedigrees, most of which are accompanied by tricks of arms indifferently executed. This blunder of styling this collection the Visitation of Worcestershire in 1634, it will clearly be seen, has arisen from a careless examination of the manuscript.

Scarcely any dates appear in these pedigrees. There is on folios 1 and 2 a pedigree of Vincent anciently Lovell, in which Henry Vincent and Edward Vincent are respectively described as of London and Kinfare in 1612; and an entry on folio 15, relating to Andrews of Hambury (see p. 9, post), which is given below :

“Memorandum that I Humfrey Andrewes of Hunbury in the Countie of Worcester gent. doe promise and by these presents doe bynde myself to make prooffe unto M^r Clarendieulx King of Arms for the bearing of these arms herein depicted at the feast of S^t Michael the Archaungell next following after the date hereof or after. In witness whereof I have sett hereunto my hand this 12th day of June in Anno Domini 1569.

“By me HUMFREY ANDREWES.”

To these pedigrees there is an index, which is followed by a “Catalogue of the Gentry in the County of Worcester in 1669,” or possibly 1660, for the handwriting is not quite clear.

On folio 45^b appears the following :

“The Visitation for Worcestershire, taken by RICHARD LEE, Gent., als. Porteuillis, Marshall to Clarendieulx, Anno Dom. 1574.”

After which comes a list of Worcestershire families, with references to their arms, which are tricked in the ensuing folios. This list we here reproduce:—

* The pedigrees thus marked do not appear in the present volume.

The present volume of Worcestershire pedigrees, issued to the members of the Harleian Society under the title of 'The Visitation of Worcestershire in 1569,' is the result of a careful collation of four manuscripts now preserved in the British Museum. They are in the Harleian Collection, and are respectively numbered 1043, 1352, 1486, and 1566.

The most reliable manuscript, which is in the handwriting of RICHARD MUNDY, the herald painter, appears to be the last, and is the only one which contains any memorandum to shew its purport. This memorandum occurs at the commencement, and is—

“The Vissitation of y^e County of Worcester mad in An^o 1569 with many other pedigrees of y^e same county transcript p' R. MUNDY.”

Harl. 1043 has, however, been selected as the basis of the present volume, as it probably more nearly represents the Visitation of 1569 than does RICHARD MUNDY's book of “laboured” pedigrees. This manuscript is bound up with what purports to be a copy of the Cambridgeshire Visitation of 1619. It is written in a small running hand, with the addition of rough tricks of arms. The Worcestershire portion of the volume commences with what is clearly a list of the Sheriffs of that county, mostly undated, but which is brought down to the year 17 James I., i.e. 1619-20, which is evidently the date of the manuscript, some of the pedigrees being brought down to that year. It has not been thought necessary to print this rough list, as it is of little value as an authority.

Harl. 1352 is a small quarto manuscript, labelled “Worcestershire, 1569,” and bound up with tricks of the arms of the Oxford and Cambridge Colleges. The coats of arms are neatly tricked, usually at the foot of each page. The variations or additions found in this manuscript are indicated in the following pages by the use of parentheses ().

Harl. 1486 is a folio, bound up with the Visitation of Derbyshire in 1611. The handwriting is large and legible, but the tricks of arms are roughly executed. It is not apparently a manuscript of any great value. Such additions or variations as it contains are indicated by square brackets [].

The bulk of each pedigree is printed in this volume in roman type, and additions or variations, whether from Harl. 1043 or Harl. 1566, are given in italics. For typographical reasons this course seemed better than adopting the alternative of confining the use of roman or italic type to any particular manuscript, as in such case many pedigrees would have been printed wholly in the latter style. The student will have no difficulty in distinguishing in any pedigree from what manuscript the respective portions are taken. The pedigrees, for reasons of convenience, have been rearranged in alphabetical order, but the exact reference in each case is given.

In the Library of Queen's College, Oxford, is a manuscript copy of the Visitation of 1569, which does not appear to materially vary from the present collection in the pedigrees which it contains; want of leisure, however, prevented the Editor from visiting Oxford for the purpose of collating this manuscript.

It may be as well to give the reference to the copies of this Visitation which are preserved in the College of Arms. They are respectively D 12 and G 9. The College also possesses another copy, with additions, in the Vincent MS. No. 115.

The irregular orthography has been retained, but usually no attempt has been made to indicate the variations in spelling between the different manuscripts, unless such refer to surnames. Every care has been taken to ensure accuracy, and in the slightest case of doubt the proof has been collated with the originals. Still it is too much to hope that no errors have crept in.

Useful as the present issue by the Harleian Society must be to students of Worcestershire family history, still it should be viewed as merely a rough guide, which cannot supersede the necessity of separate investigation. In this respect it is of course no better nor worse than many other manuscript volumes which are preserved in the Harleian Collection at the British Museum.

I have to acknowledge the willing assistance rendered me by Mr. J. EEDS, by whom the transcript for the press was made with his usual accuracy. I am indebted to my friend Mr. W. C. METCALFE, the Editor of the 'Visitation of the County of Worcester in 1682-3,' for permission to reproduce the woodcuts of the seals belonging to the City of Worcester, and also those of Evesham and Kidderminster. The thanks of the Society are likewise due to the Town Clerk of Droitwich, who supplied an impression of the common seal of that borough, an engraving of which is also given.

The Visitacion of Norfolk,

MADE AND TAKEN BY

WILLIAM HERVEY, CLARENCEUX KING OF ARMS,

ANNO 1563,

ENLARGED WITH ANOTHER VISITACION MADE BY CLARENCEUX COOKE,

WITH MANY OTHER DESCENTS;

AND ALSO THE

VISSITATION MADE BY JOHN RAVEN, RICHMOND,

ANNO 1613.

EDITED BY

WALTER RYE.

LONDON:

1891.

Preface.

THE Visitations of Norfolk of 1563 by Wm. Hervey, Clarencieux, of 1589 by Robert Cooke, Clarencieux, and of 1613 by John Raven, Richmond, were combined into one collection by R. Mundy about 1620, and now form Harl. MS. 1552.

The combination was an able and a good one, and from a transcript of it, very carefully and accurately made by the late Mr. J. Eedes, the following pages have been printed to serve as a text for the use of students, pending the issue of a future volume or volumes in which I hope to reprint the whole in a narrative form, with large additions from the Collections of Le Neve, Martin, Norris, and L'Estrange, which are now in my library, and which are in the process of being carefully indexed.

From these Collections I have corrected obvious errors in the text of the copy, but have not attempted at this stage to add descents or to bring the pedigrees down to the present time.

I may mention that an elaborate edition of the Visitation of 1563 has been in the Press for the Norfolk and Norwich Archæological Society for nearly thirty years, but as it has been issued at the average rate of thirty-one pages per year only, it is clear that no one now living will live to see its completion, so the present Volume will serve as a temporary stop-gap for a good many years.

Two Volumes containing the "Allegations for Marriage Licences issued by the Vicar-General of the Archbishop of Canterbury" between 1679 and 1694 (in continuation of those originally transcribed by the late Colonel CHESTER), edited by Mr. ARMYTAGE, and forming Volumes XXX. and XXXI. of the ordinary Publications, have been issued to the Members during the year.

The "Registers of St. George's Chapel, May Fair," kept by the Rev. A. KEITH and others from 1740 to 1754, have also been issued.

The "Visitations of Norfolk," edited by Mr. WALTER RYE, F.S.A., are in the Press.
